

2010 ANNUAL MEETINGS
 MARCH 6-9
 KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

Standing Strong
TOGETHER.

Please join us in Kansas City for the 2010 AgriBank Annual Meeting!

2009 has continued to bring challenges to the financial industry. The 'Great Recession' started on Wall Street but spread throughout the year. It has impacted a number of key agricultural industries we serve. And while many financial organizations have suffered, together we have built a sustainable model based on the fundamentals of financial strength and credit discipline to weather the first wave of this storm.

As we prepare for whatever the future holds, our vision, Serving Those Who Serve Rural America, remains front and center.

Standing Strong
TOGETHER.

AgriBank and AgriBank District Associations will be here for future generations as our commitment to those who feed our world has taken an even stronger hold.

Educational Workshop: Animal Welfare Issues

Date: Sunday, March 7, 2010

Time: 1:00 pm - 2:30 pm

The animal agriculture industry is being talked about a lot - in our backyards and on regional/national media. We've asked experts from outside organizations to give their perspective and join us in a forum. Come listen, participate and learn as we discuss the animal welfare issues.

Moderator: Leigh Picchetti, FCCServices

Expert Panel:

- The Honorable Senator Dan Clemens, Missouri State Senate
- Robert Dykhuis, Dykhuis Farms, Inc
- David White, Center for Food & Animal Issues/ Ohio Livestock Coalition

General Session Speakers

Panel Discussion - John Phipps

Date: Monday, March 6, 2010

John Phipps, the host of US Farm Report, will be sharing some personal insights. Since 1994, John Phipps has been providing unique speaking and writing services to agriculture, agribusiness, and rural communities. From seminars and keynotes, to articles and commentary, John generates up-to-the-minute provocative presentations that stimulate interest and response. Interlaced with wit and perspective, John's presentations breathe life into meeting formats and touch on areas of farm and rural living that trouble and excite us. His experiences in the trenches as a commercial grain farmer lend both credibility and empathy to his comments. Familiar to farm audiences from the pages of Farm Journal and Top Producer, John has established himself as an independent observer who does not flinch from asking the hard questions or suggesting honest answers, even challenging the status quo.

Keynote Speaker - Tom Faranda

Date: Monday, March 8, 2010 / 12:45 pm - 1:45 pm

Tom Faranda, this year's keynote speaker, is well known across the world as a global executive. His global trends have been on target for over 25 years. He forecasted the rise and fall of Japan, the rise and fall of the Euro and the rise of China as a world power as well as many other trends. Few speakers know the global world from the inside as Tom does. Tom Faranda's style is fast-paced and compelling to promote energy and to get a 'buy-in' from participants. His global examples, bottom-line techniques, stories and humor create a compelling experience that motivates leaders. Tom has written several books including, Global Realities That Impact YOUR Bottom Line (2010) and Uncommon Sense Leadership.

Guest Speaker - Kenneth A. Spearman

Date: Monday, March 8, 2010

Kenneth A. Spearman will be joining us during AgriBank's Annual Meeting as a special guest speaker. Ken was appointed to the FCA Board by President Barack Obama in the fall of 2009. Mr. Spearman also serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Farm Credit System Insurance Corporation, which is responsible for ensuring the timely payment of principal and interest on obligations issued on behalf of Farm Credit System banks. Mr. Spearman brings to his position on the FCA Board many years of experience in finance, agriculture, and agricultural cooperatives. He spent 28 years in the Florida citrus industry. From January 2006 until his appointment to the FCA Board, Mr. Spearman served as an independently appointed outside director on the AgFirst Farm Credit Bank board in Columbia, South Carolina.

Evening and Social Events

Welcome "Denim Dinner"

hosted by AgriBank at the Faulkner's Ranch

Date: Sunday, March 7, 2010

Time: 5:30 pm - 8:00 pm

There's no better place to host what's come to be known as the "Denim Dinner", than the legendary Faulkner Ranch. It promises to bring you a taste of the fun and food that marked Kansas City as an old western "Cowtown". We'll board coaches just outside the hotel for a 20 minute ride. The evening will feature a tasty K.C. Barbeque Buffet with plenty to eat. Entertainment will include a Live Variety Band, Dancin', Singin', and a whole lot more. Sheriff Terry will be there to uphold the peace. Put on your best Cowboy Duds and Jeans. We hope to see you there!

Bryan Townsend after dinner speaker

Date: Monday, March 8, 2010

Time: 5:30 pm - Reception

6:30 pm - Dinner

8:30 pm - Entertainment/Speaker

Bryan Townsend comes from a small town; Eureka, Alabama. He will tell you, it doesn't get much smaller than "Eureka"! For twenty years, Bryan served as the manager of a country music radio station where he delivered a daily radio commentary, wrote and produced radio and television commercials and served as a play by play sports announcer. Bryan's first hand views and observations of rural American life are sprinkled liberally with heart-warming humor and shared stories from his life's experiences. He's our special pick as the after dinner speaker to close the AgriBank Annual Meeting. We hope you'll enjoy his presentation.
